Tires

Overview

<https://www.nhtsa.gov/equipment/tires>

Because safety is our top priority, the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration and the Department of Transportation want to make sure you have the tools to avoid being in vehicle crashes. TireWise is your resource to help you make smart decisions to keep you and your family safe, whether you're in the market to buy new tires or want to extend the life and safety of the ones on your car or truck.

Important Tire Safety Information: Tire Recalls and Complaints

When there are problems with tires, you can rely on NHTSA to keep you informed. But we also need your help. Search for tire recalls by VIN and report a tire safety complaint to NHTSA

Being TireWise

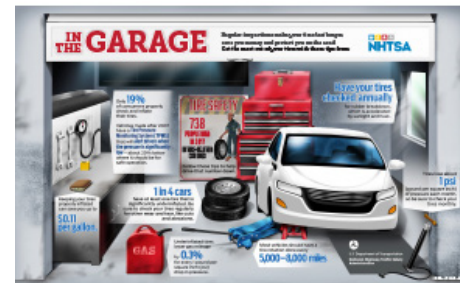

Additional Resources

<https://www.nhtsa.gov/tires/retailer-tools>

Being TireWise (PDF, 341.5 KB) is essential to safe driving. The only thing between you and the road are your tires. TireWise provides drivers with information about buying tires, tire maintenance and labeling, aging, fuel efficiency, and tire retailers. TireWise is also a resource for tire manufacturers, sellers and other partners to provide essential information to consumers for choosing and caring for their tires.

It all starts in the garage.

The next time you're in the garage, remember these handy tire tips (PDF, 367.6 KB).
